To pass or fail a student

To grade or rank a student

To diagnose a student's strengths and weaknesses

To provide feedback to students

To motivate students

To provide a profile of what a student has learnt

To predict success in future courses

To predict success in employment

To select for future courses

To select for future employment

To tell students what they have achieved

To tell students how to improve their   performance