

System-Wide Reform through Networking

Univerzita Palackého v Olomouci
Tuesday 26 April 2011

Dr Frank Fabri

introduction

- Probable current schooling scenario
- The bureaucratic and hierarchical approach
- System-Wide Reform

Networks and Networking

- Networks and networking
- Key purposes for networks
- A typology of networks
- Three levels of networking

evidence

- Network development
- Aspects of networking
- Network facilitation roles
- Contrasting factors of pre- and post-networks

Concluding remarks

- Experiences by educational leaders and professionals
- Change in both the operational structure and the strategic organisation
- Networking traditions
- Facilitation by networks

details

Dr Frank Fabri

College Principal
Office of the College Principal
Saint Theresa College
Bishop Labini Street
Birkirkara, MALTA

email: francis.fabri@gov.mt

url: www.kulleggsantatereza.edu.mt

System-Wide Reform through Networking

Univerzita Palackého v Olomouci
Tuesday 26 April 2011

Dr Frank Fabri

introduction

- Probable current schooling scenario
- The bureaucratic and hierarchical approach
- System-Wide Reform

Networks and Networking

- Networks and networking
- Key purposes for networks
- A typology of networks
- Three levels of networking

evidence

- Network development
- Aspects of networking
- Network facilitation roles
- Contrasting factors of pre- and post-networks

Concluding remarks

- Experiences by educational leaders and professionals
- Change in both the operational structure and the strategic organisation
- Networking traditions
- Facilitation by networks

details

Dr Frank Fabri

College Principal
Office of the College Principal
Saint Theresa College
Bishop Labini Street
Birkirkara, MALTA

email: francis.fabri@gov.mt

url: www.kulleggsantatereza.edu.mt